DAY 02: LIMA | INC: B

- City Tour Lima

Breakfast included at hotel restaurant.

- This exclusive tour takes you through Lima's Historic Center, where you can admire and learn about the numerous architectural relics that make up this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Begin in the magnificent Santo Domingo Convent, which was built during Lima's foundation, and originally housed the San Marcos University – the oldest university in the Americas. Stepping into the convent is like stepping into the past. The oldest chairs in the country sit in the chorus area, while the library – with its 25,000 books from the Dominicans, some of which were printed in the XV Century – is of incredible historic value. The Santo Domingo Convent was transited by all the major Saints of Lima, and currently houses the remains of San Martín de Porres, San Juan Masías y Santa Rosa de Lima. From here, cross through Lima's Main Plaza – which contains the Government and Municipal Palaces – as you make your way towards the Lima Cathedral (panoramic view). Then, make your way to the Larco Museum, located 30 minutes from Lima's city center. The museum, named one of the Worlds 25 Best Museums by Tripadvisor's Traveller's Choice Awards, has many different displays that offer visitors a journey through the beauty and history of Peru's ancient cultures. Meanwhile, the warehouse contains an impressive amount of ceramic pieces that depict faces, objects, fruits, birds, and many other aspects of day-to-day life in ancient Peru.  Take note that The Cathedral of Lima attends from Monday to Friday, Saturday mornings and Sunday afternoons. The hours in which the Cathedral does not open, we will visit San Francisco Convent

- Afternoon at leisure.
