Reception at Puerto Natales airport and transfer to the hotel.
Overnight.

Day 02

Puerto Natales (B/L)

Breakfast in the hotel.

Full day exc. Balmaceda & Serrano Glaciers (SIB): 07:30 h transfer to the pier (no guide included) to start sailing the Ultima Esperanza Fjord (Last Hope) and after a 3-hour navigation arrival to the thousand-year-old glacier of Mount Balmaceda, habitat of cormorants and sea lions. At the end of the fjord disembark and walk approximately 1 kilometer (3/4 mile) on a path through the middle of a wonderful native forest to the foot of the Glacier Serrano and from there, admire this huge natural wonder.

Back trip to Puerto Natales with a stop in ranch to enjoy a typical lunch barbecue (or a menu in low season) and transfer to the hotel (no guide included).

Overnight.

Day 03

Puerto Natales – Torres del Paine – Puerto Natales (B/L)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Full day exc. to Torres del Paine National Park with lunch: Departure from Puerto Natales through steppes and Patagonia scrub, full of abundant wild life and herds of sheep, up to Torres del Paine National Park declared world heritage by UNESCO in 1978. In the park, a large variety of native fauna especially large herds of guanacos can be observed. Visit the Salto Grande of the Paine River, with the impressive mountain massif of Torres del Paine in the background. Then visit to Lake Pehoé, Lake Grey and Grey Glacier.

After lunch, on the way back we visit the Cueva del Milodón, a cave where, in 1968, the remains of a Milodón, a large prehistoric herbivorous mammal that inhabited 14,000 years ago, were discovered.

Return to Puerto Natales and overnight.

Day 04

Puerto Natales (B)

Observation

Turavion and its agents act only as intermediaries of the companies whose products extend the services. Turavion does not assume any responsibility for train, bus, ship or any transportation service, and the hotels used by passengers; Turavion is also not responsible for any act, mistake or omission, or for any damages caused by vehicles or people related to the suppliers. Additional expenses, if any, will be on passenger account. Turavion adheres to what is established in the Chilean Standard (NCh3067:2013), regarding the prevention of human beings exploitation, in any form, especially sexual, and in particular when it may affect children. Therefore, we do not work with companies that offer products related to the above, and we ask you inform us if any of this happens during the trip.

At Turavion we are committed to the correct tourism development of the country and the well-being of all its inhabitants, in addition, we are a socially responsible company and we make sure that our operations have a positive impact on the culture and environment of the areas in which we operate. We operate, protecting the health and safety of our staff, suppliers and passengers. Our sustainability policy is based on four fundamental pillars that allow us to create travel programs and experiences that directly benefit our land, wildlife and local communities, in addition to raising awareness of the local culture, flora and fauna of our country. We promote the preservation of the environment by making decisions that contribute to the conservation of nature and our national and international heritage; in addition, we prioritize and give visibility to our suppliers with sustainable policies through our Crime Prevention Model and Our Code of Ethics. We promote the professional growth of our collaborators without distinction of gender, religion, ethnicity or political ideology, and with permanent training in issues of service, quality, care and maintenance of our natural environment and we support local communities to preserve their traditions and cultural identity, as is the case of San Pedro de Atacama, where we favor the services offered by the various indigenous peoples.
