living. Discover Punta and a handful of other beachfront communities on this full-day sightseeing excursion. First, stop at Portezuelo and Punta Ballena, hidden on a bluff overlooking the ocean. You will also stop for a photo opportunity at Casapueblo, the former home of famed Uruguayan artist Carlos Paez Vilaro who passed away in February 2014. The dazzling white complex, resembling Spanish Moroccan architecture, sits on a rocky bluff overlooking the ocean. Vilaró built it in 1958 with his own two hands, using only traditional tools. Narrow steps lead to a maze of rooms scattered on different levels and filled with the artist's works. Entrance to museum is included.

Your next stop will be Punta del Este. Although the resort's colonial architecture has been largely replaced with high-rise hotels and apartments, its residential areas are still graced with elegant beachfront homes and mansions nestled among the tall pines lining the shore. Your next destination is La Barra and its unique hanging bridges. Merrily painted buildings and its cement camelback bridge create a carnival-like atmosphere and is a sight to behold. You will drive downtown where lunch will be served at a local Punta del Este restaurant (optional, not included). If you have time to spare, you will be able to enjoy free time to explore on your own. Walking involved: this excursion involves going up and down narrow steps inside Casapueblo.

founded by the Portuguese in 1680, a time when Spain and Portugal were in the midst of conflict. Today, peace reigns as the Old City closes a door onto days long gone, retaining a charm that will be well appreciated on your guided walk.

Matriz Church, Bastión del Carmen, the streets of Santa Rita and San Gabriel and the area of San Pedro Road all beckon with their colonial architecture and flower-bedecked buildings. Calle de los Suspiros, or Street of Sighs, has set the scene for historical films, while Puerta del Campo and Plaza Mayor 25 de Mayo also bring the past into the present, tangible symbols of historic events and enduring traditions. Colonia is a truly delightful place, with its architectural treasures complemented by the natural beauty of its surroundings. The Uruguay River and historic landmarks such as the cathedral, San Carlos bullring and lighthouse offer a magical mix of scenic beauty and cultural significance. At the end of the walking tour, there will be a stop for lunch, shopping or to walk around the city by yourself.

After the tour, you will be dropped off at Port to take the ferry to Buenos Aires.

Includes: Walk: moderate, it is not extensive but you will find cobblestone streets during the walking tour.
